

Infectious Disease Specialist, St. Joseph's Health Centre, Unity Health Toronto

Unity Health Toronto, St Joseph's Health Centre site in Toronto is inviting applications for an Active Staff full-time position in the Division of Infectious Diseases. St. Joseph's is a fully accredited community teaching hospital within the Unity Health Toronto network, serving Toronto's west-end.

St. Joseph's provides care to a culturally and economically diverse population of about 530,000. Our hospital is a 400-bed facility that employs approximately 2,500 staff, along with 500 credentialed staff physicians. Unity Health Toronto's values center around Inclusivity, Community, Excellence, Compassion and Human Dignity.

The ideal candidate will have an interest in a busy community general infectious disease practice. Subspecialty training, an interest in education, and/or quality improvement would be an asset but is not required. An interest in General Internal Medicine would also be supported. The successful candidate will join a team of 4 infectious disease physicians. On call coverage is shared with an expectation for ambulatory clinical work. An interest in HIV would be an asset but is not required.

The candidate must possess exemplary clinical skills and professionalism, with evidence of excellent interpersonal and collaborative skills. The candidate will be required to support the Division of Infectious Diseases with teaching commitments of medical students and residents.

The successful candidate must be proficient in English and be eligible for an academic appointment at the University of Toronto at the rank of Lecturer or Assistant Professor. Certification in Internal Medicine and Infectious Diseases by the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada as well as licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario is a requirement. Candidates must have Canadian Medical Protective Association coverage or equivalent in good standing.

Compensation will be by OHIP billings.

The anticipated start date is July 1st, 2022, or as mutually agreed upon.

Applicants must submit a curriculum vitae, a description of previous academic experience and the names of three personal references no later than May 1st, 2022 to:
